

R.S.Q., chapter A-19.1

AN ACT RESPECTING LAND USE PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT

[...]

Adoption of by-law.

53.5. After the consultation period concerning the draft by-law, the council of the regional county municipality shall adopt a by-law to amend the development plan, with or without changes.

Consultation period.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the consultation period runs until the end of the last of the following days:

- 1) if the opinion of the Minister is requested, the day the opinion is served or, failing that, the last day of the period prescribed in section 51;
- 2) the day the last resolution transmitted by a municipality pursuant to section 52 is received or, failing such a transmission by a municipality, the last day of the period applicable to it under that section;
- 3) the day the public meeting is held or, if several are held, the day the last one is held, or the last day of the period prescribed in the second paragraph of section 53.

Revised land use planning and development plan.

56.6. After the period of consultation on the first draft, the council of the regional county municipality shall adopt, with or without changes, a revised land use planning and development plan for public consultation, designated as the “second draft”.

However, where the Minister, in accordance with section 56.4, has served on the regional county municipality an opinion stating objections to the first draft, the second draft must contain all the changes necessary for removing the reasons for the objections.

Consultation period.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the consultation period for the first draft lasts until the end of the later of the following days:

- 1) the day on which the notice prescribed in section 56.4 is served or, failing that, the last day of the period provided in that section;
- 2) the day on which the last resolution transmitted by municipalities, school boards or regional county municipalities in accordance with section 56.5 is received or, failing such transmission by any of them, the last day of the period applicable to it under that section.

Certified copies.

As soon as practicable after the adoption of the second draft, the secretary-treasurer shall transmit a certified copy of the draft and of the resolution under which it is adopted to every municipality or school board whose territory is situated in whole or in part in that of the regional county municipality and to every contiguous regional county municipality.
